Despite overall market contraction in fiscal 2014, 10 of the top 15 MACs grew last year—and that’s just the beginning of the story.. In fiscal 2014, $115 billion flowed through MACs, accounting for more than 25 percent of all federal procurement spending—with 40 percent of all obligations going to small businesses.. Large or small, federal contractors looking for an edge need look no further than multiple-award contracts (MACs).
